

My Monthly Marathon

Terms & Conditions

- 1) The present document might be updated from time to time, without previous public or private warning, to reflect unforeseen circumstances that need addressing in order to guarantee the safety and integrity of both, coaches and participants as well as the provision of current or future services.
- 2) All information displayed at <http://www.mymonthlymarathon.com> is for reference purposes only and it must be taken as it is instead of a definitive piece of advice. Despite all our coaches are professionally accredited, My Monthly Marathon does not necessarily share the views and opinions of each individual that writes in the website.
- 3) If a participant wants to cancel a booked session, this needs to be done with 48 hours prior to the scheduled time of it and in writing (a mobile text, email or letter is enough) or the participant risks being fined up to the cost of the session or losing any monies paid towards it.
- 4) Any discount offered to a customer is personal to them as it might be gained by the participant by their loyalty to My Monthly Marathon or by personal circumstances solely inherent to that individual.
- 5) Any information collected by My Monthly Marathon during the provision of services to customers is treated with confidentiality. My Monthly Marathon takes all steps deemed necessary and at our disposal to avoid this information reaches third parties.
- 6) Every session provided by My Monthly Marathon must be paid in advance. Some exceptions apply at My Monthly Marathon solely discretion.
- 7) My Monthly Marathon reserves the right to choose to whom to provide services and accepts no obligation whatsoever as to explain the reason for refusal of servicing to a particular person/s.
